

BY-LAWS
OF
CHRIS-CRAFT ANTIQUE BOAT CLUB, INC.
~ A NOT FOR PROFIT CORPORATION ~

Pursuant to of Chapter 617, Title XXXVI of the 2011 Florida Statutes, the Board of Directors of the Corporation, upon motion duly made, seconded and unanimously approved, hereby adopt the following as the Bylaws of the Chris-Craft Antique Boat Club, Inc. (hereinafter "the Club" or ("the Corporation"))

ARTICLE I: HEADQUARTERS

The principal office of the Club shall be located at such place as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time.

ARTICLE II: DIRECTORS

- A. All directors of the Club must be at least 21 years of age and be voting members of the Club in good standing. At no time shall the Club Board of Directors consist of more than 40% of its members who also hold board positions in another Marque Club, the Antique & Classic Boat Society, Inc. or any other similar organization.
- B. Directors shall be responsible for the areas of activity that may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors.
- C. Directors shall not have any special privileges or be exempt from payment of any dues or other assessments, nor shall they be compensated for their services to the Club, but may, by resolution of the Board of Directors, be reimbursed for ordinary and or large/unusual expenses incurred in executing their duties on behalf of the Club.
- D. Directors shall be indemnified for expenses incurred (including legal fees) resulting from any lawsuits brought against the directors of the Club while executing their duties on behalf of the Club, except in the case of wanton disregard for their duties under applicable law or these Bylaws, gross negligence, or misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance.

E. If the Board of Directors requires it, any officer or director of the Club shall execute to the Club a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board may direct, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the officer's or director's duties to the Club and including responsibility for negligence and for the accounting of all property, funds or securities of the Club which may come into such officer's or director's hands.

F. A Director may be removed for cause by a vote of at least four of the remaining directors.

G. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors may be filled by majority vote of the remaining directors, and the replacement shall serve out the unexpired portion of the term of the director he or she replaces.

H. The term of office for directors shall be two years except as provided herein. After the initial election of directors, the directors shall meet and designate two of their number to serve one year terms, two to serve two year terms, and one to serve a three year term, for the purpose of creating staggered terms for directors. All subsequent elections shall be for two year terms.

Article V: COMMITTEES

A. Committees (in addition to the Nominations Committee) shall be designated by the Board from time to time by resolution based on the needs or requirements as the Board sees fit, and shall have such authority and responsibilities as the Board may prescribe.

B. The President of the Club is an ex-officio member of each of the Club's committees except the Nominating Committee.

C. Except for the Nominating Committee, the President shall assign each of the Club's committees to an officer of the Club as indicated below for oversight and liaison purposes, and such officers will be ex-officio members of those committees assigned to them.

D. Committee chairs shall present written committee reports to the Board of Directors Meeting and to President in accordance with a schedule determined by the Board.

E. Committee material will not be distributed to the Club's general membership or to the general public without prior approval of the officer having oversight responsibility for that committee.

F. There shall be a NOMINATING COMMITTEE which shall have responsibility annually to provide a slate of qualified candidates for election to the Board of Directors. A three-member Nominating Committee shall be established as follows: The President shall appoint the chair of the Nominating Committee from one of the three most recent past Presidents of the Club. In the event that a past President cannot serve as chair, the current President shall appoint a past or present Director to serve as chair. The other two members of the committee shall be appointed from current or past members of the Board of Directors by majority vote of the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee shall make its report, consisting of a full slate of nominees for vacant offices, to the Board of Directors at its last regularly scheduled meeting in no event later than __August____ 31st of each year. The names of nominees and the positions for which they are nominated shall be placed on the ballot which the membership must use to properly vote for the slate of nominees.

ARTICLE VI: MEETINGS:

A. At its first meeting of the year after elections, the Board of Directors shall establish and distribute a schedule of regular meetings of the Board. No notice shall be required for such regular meetings on the schedule.

B. Special Meetings shall be on not less than ten (10) days notice issued by the President or Secretary.

C. Meetings of the Directors, officers or any committee may be held telephonically or electronically.

F. Proxy voting shall not be permitted.

ARTICLE VII: FINANCES:

A. Membership in the Club shall be maintained through the payment of dues in accordance with the following schedules: Dues Schedule of Chris Craft Antique Boat Club, Inc. (Effective January 1, 2012) $50.00 US, $65.00 non-US

B. Annual membership dues run on a rolling twelve consecutive month basis using the expiration date of last membership as the basis for renewal except that a 30-day grace period will be granted for late payment of dues. A member renewing after expiration of the 30-day grace period will have his/her membership renewed on the date on which the renewal is processed at the Club's Headquarters.

C. The Treasurer of the Club will identify an annual premium charge to be applied to overseas memberships to cover the extra cost of mailings to overseas members. Such premium charges will be included within the final annual dues.

D. Funds of the Club shall be disbursed according to the following schedule:

1. The Treasurer of the Club shall make arrangements to have approved budgeted funds (other than approved committee funds) expended/committed/transferred as required for the day-to-day operation of the Club and for special Club needs.

2. Committee funds included in an approved budget may be expended/committed by committee chairs without further authorization. Incidental amounts exceeding approved committee budgets must be authorized by the Treasurer.

3. Non-budgeted funds shall be committed/expended only after authorization by the Club's Board of Directors.

E. Funds of the Club shall be disbursed by checks carrying signatures according to the following schedule:

1. For amounts under fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500), the signature of the Treasurer, President or other person designated by the Board of Directors shall be sufficient.
2. For amounts of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) or more, two signatures (Treasurer, President or other person designated by the Board of Directors) shall be required.
3. The Board of Directors may waive the above requirements for good cause as to specific instances or as to categories of payments, such as for expenses incurred in the ordinary course of Club business, such as printing the Club magazine, postage, computer services, etc.

ARTICLE VIII: CONTRACTS:

It is recognized that from time to time the Club must enter into various financial and legal obligations with outside organizations in the conduct of its business. In so doing, every effort must be made to ensure that legal and financial contract provisions are fair and in the Club's best interests. Therefore, the following guidelines are identified for the preparation and execution of any contracts that obligate the Club, unless specific exceptions are approved by the Board of Directors.

- A. Before they are finalized, proposed contracts should be reviewed by the legal counsel volunteer (a member in good standing) and the Treasurer of the Club.
- B. Any recommendations resulting from the above reviews will be attached to or incorporated into the proposed contract, as appropriate, and the resulting document(s) will then be reviewed by a representative of the Board of Directors who is fully familiar with the type of contract under consideration.
- C. Having arrived at a finalized contract, the following signatories are authorized to sign the contract for the Club:
 1. The Officer or Director of the Club responsible for the contract's preparation/negotiation/renegotiation,
 2. The President of the Club or his/her designated representative.
