The Club shall maintain and make available archives, including but not limited to factory photographs, parts and instruction manuals for older Chris Craft engines, copies of Chris Craft dealer showroom catalogues detailing the boats as they were originally constructed, owners' manuals, service directories and other materials on reconstruction, restoration and maintenance of vintage wooden boats. A further purpose of the Club shall be to join in symposiums and seminars in conjunction with museums and other not-for-profit organizations organized and existing pursuant to IRC §501(c) organizations in an effort to furnish members and the general public with information on boating heritage, theories of original construction, guidelines for restoration and other educational opportunities. A further purpose shall be to assemble experts from within the antique and classic boating community who will be available to Club members and the general public to furnish advice to those in need of assistance with the restoration and maintenance of historic watercraft. A further purpose shall be to distribute, at least quarterly, a publication containing reference and educational materials and articles of interest to those researching the history of Chris Craft boats as well as other marques and a forum for persons having an interest therein. In general, the purpose of the Club shall be to act as a reservoir of information on the history of Chris-Craft and the construction of Chris-Craft boats.

B. The Corporation may also engage in any other activities not prohibited by law; provided however, this corporation is not organized for the private gain of any person or any other non-exempt entity and is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the specific purposes of the Corporation, and the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law. The Corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws. The Corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws. The Corporation will not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws. The corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, no substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including publishing or distributing statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. All corporate property is irrevocably dedicated to the charitable and educational non-profit purposes set forth in this Article.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, no part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any of its directors, trustees, officers, private shareholders or members, or to individuals. The Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws.

F. Upon the winding up and dissolution of the Corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Corporation, the remaining assets of this Corporation shall be distributed to a not-for-profit organization (or organizations) organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes which has (or have) established tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future Unites States internal revenue law).

Article IV: TERM OF EXISTENCE

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence. In the event of the termination of its corporate existence, upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation its assets shall be distributed to such organization (or organizations) organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as provided in Article III(F).

Article V: MEMBERS.

Any person that subscribes to the purposes for which the Club is founded shall, upon payment of annual dues specified in the By-Laws, be entitled to membership in the Corporation. Dues paying members shall have voting rights as set forth in these Articles and in the By-Laws. The membership year shall be 12 consecutive months from the joined/renewal date. The Club may have addition classes of non-voting members as are defined in the By-Laws. Dues, rights, and additional privileges and responsibilities of membership not set forth in these Articles shall be defined in the By-Laws of the Corporation.

Article VI: GOVERNANCE

A. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of up to seven (7) members. The initial Board of Directors, who shall serve for the initial term indicated adjacent to their respective names, shall be composed of the following individuals:

Donald B. Ayers Term ending 12-31-2013

C. Allen Benton Term ending 12-31-2013

Paul F. Harrison Term ending 12-31-2013

Don J. Vogt Term ending 12-31-2013

Jim Frechette Term ending 12-31-13
